Can I withdraw money?	* No - You can't withdraw money from Ikano Bank Fixed Saver accounts prior to the maturity date. In exceptional circumstances we may consider waiving this but we aren't obliged to do so.
Additional Information	Tax Status: Interest will be paid gross* which means no tax is deducted. It is your responsibility to pay any tax due, based on your individual circumstances. For further information go to the HM Revenue & Customs website, and / or seek further advice from your accountant or tax advisor. Saving Protection: Your savings are protected up to £85,000 per customer (that's £170,000 for a joint account). As we're a Swedish Bank, you're protected through the Swedish Deposit Insurance Scheme, provided by the Swedish National Debt Office 'Riksgälden'. The UK Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) will not apply. For more information visit: www.riksgalden.se/en/Deposit_insurance

*Gross interest - From the 6th April 2016, no tax will be deducted by us and therefore gross is the rate of interest if interest was paid and not compounded each year.

AER - stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if the interest was paid and compounded once each year.

Key Terms and Conditions

- To open an account, you need to be over 18 and live in the UK.
- You need to have a UK current account in your name, which you can use as your 'nominated account'. Your nominated account must be a personal account in your name containing a six digit sort code and eight digit account number. If you have a joint Ikano Bank Savings Account, your nominated account can be in either or both account holders' names. You can update your nominated account details online at any time.
- You must put at least £1,000 into your account within 14 days of applying.
- The maturity date of your account will be a fixed period (the "term" of the account) after your initial deposit is made.
- At least 21 days before your account matures, we'll write to explain what you can do next. You'll be able to see your options and choose one or more by logging into your account up to 2 days before it matures.
- If you don't select an option your account will become an Easy Saver account with no withdrawal restrictions. We'll tell you the interest rate as well as the terms and conditions that would apply when we write to you before maturity.
